

BAWTRY TOWN COUNCIL NEWSLETTER – JUNE 2011

Elections – May 2011

As only 11 persons stood for nomination onto the town council at the May elections, notices were placed on the boards asking for interested persons to come forward for co-option to fill the two vacant seats. Consequently at our Annual Town Council meeting on 10 May, two residents were duly co-opted and all members' contact details are given at the end of this newsletter.

However, one member has subsequently resigned his seat and therefore, unless 10 residents call for an election to be held, the town council will co-opt to fill this casual vacancy at its meeting on 12 July. The appropriate Notices will be exhibited on the notice boards in the centre of the town. If no election is called, we would be pleased to hear from anyone interested in joining the town council.
